

TAYLOR SMYTH'S 10TH

Taylor Smyth Architects (TS) celebrated its first 10 years and the launch of its new website with a cocktail party in their revamped Davenport Road digs.

1—TS team: communications manager Colin Geary; architects Dorie Smith and Margaret Krawecka; intern Anthony Gopuansuy; and office manager Carmeli Banci.

2—Founding partners Robert Smyth and Michael Taylor.

3—Arne Nordtorp, honorary Danish consul general; architect Rebecca Wei, TS associate; and John Paul Kim, junior tenant designer, Toews Engineering.

4—TS architects and associates Greg Adams and Aaron Finbow flank David Reale, partner at industrial designer and custom fabricator Reale Born.

Smiles of a summer night

—By David Lasker

FEMININE MYSTIQUE

The Design Exchange's Chalmers Design Centre and Teknion Lounge hosted the opening of Capacity, an exhibit of new works in a wide range of media by 10 Toronto-based women designers.

1—Maiwenn Castellán, industrial designer at cutlery and dish maker Gourmet Settings, and creator of the show's LIAM Mailbox; mixed-media artist Matthew-Robin Nye, whose work recently appeared at the York U Art Gallery; Ange-line Tetrault, who stands in front of her I ♥ U Lamp, and designs for ceramics giftware maker Imm Living; and Nathalie Nahas, who creates store-window displays at Yorkville's Anthropologie boutique, and whose contribution to the show is a Now I know my ABCs alphabet.

2—KPMB architects Glenn MacMullin, Steven Casey and Joy Charbonneau (whose Hydrological Map of Canada, in the exhibit, shows our every lake, river and brook); furniture designer Derek McLeod, whose credits include Keilhauer's Flit stacking chair; and York U social psych student Amanda Williams.

3—Jordan Lane, board of maintenance, Ireland Park Foundation; Stratford Festival scenic designer Joanna Yu; show co-curator and ceramics designer Katherine Morley with her Hanna children's-book display; and Paul Kawai, an environmental designer at Bruce Mau Design.

